I Run the Globe 2020

The "Athens Marathon the Authentic" is famous for replicate the actual route that Pheidippides took. As you may already know he is the one that run from the city of Marathon to Athens to deliver the news of a military victory in 490 BC.

There are two other races than just the

The starting line is by the beach and to be more accurate, it is near the Kolpos peninsula. The race will be flat for 10K, and then the route will face some elevation before reaching the finish line located more than 100 meters above sea level. Other than the challenge the race is magnificent in terms of view, you would definitely feel that you just stepped back in antiquity.
